

Theory and Practice of Coaching and Counseling

by Bjoern Migge, MD

Europes biggest Handbook and Textbook on coaching and counseling: Theory, practice, casework, tools... A bestseller in Germany. Over 10,000 sold copies in the first two years. Many enthusiastic reviews: www.drmigge.de/infos/reviews-in-german.pdf 633 p. cases, theory, practice, tools...

Coaching, Guidance and Counseling in Action (in German: Handbuch Coaching und Beratung) is a compendium, tool box, case collection, basic information, textbook and work book about the burgeoning field of adult coaching and counseling and the skill to guide individuals, families and organizations so that they function at their most effective and creative stages. Written for experienced professionals and non-professionals and aspiring coaches and counselors, as well as for executives and human resource professionals interested in this rapidly growing field, the Handbook Coaching, Guidance and Counseling describes the essential tools and attitudes of successful psychological coaching and counseling. It includes the viewpoints of NLP, psychodynamic therapy, psychodrama, systemic approach, cognitive behavioral science, biography work, humanistic and existential therapy and coaching. The Handbook of Coaching, Guidance and Counseling has become the reference textbook in counseling & psychological coaching. Other title options in English: Coaching and Counseling - a Practical Guide, Guidance and Coaching for Practitioners, Practice of Coaching and Counseling, Coaching - Theory, Tools and Cases.

We are looking for publishers, lit. agents, counselors, coaches, therapists who are interested in book rights or in writing a book review for English speaking or other not German readers.

Contact for more information or a reading copy:

BELTZ

Mrs. Kerstin Michaelis, Beltz publ., Germany
Telefon +49-620-6007-327
E-Mail: k.michaelis @ beltz.de foreignrights@beltz.de